APRIL NEWSLETTER

Hello

Following the successful evening with Nancy May in February the Committee thinks you should know the plans for the future events.

The Coronation is the weekend of 6-8th May so hope to see many of you joining in with whatever the village is arranging in celebration.

However, our next event is the Annual General Meeting to be held on Thursday 25th May in St Andrew's Church at 7.00pm. This will be in the normal form of, as usual, past events, election of the Committee, all followed by drinks and nibbles!! Although we have a small committee, there is always a welcome for anyone else to join.

FOSTAC is involved with the Shalford Fete in June inasmuch as we are 'manning' the Bottle Stall – so if you have any bottles to donate to this (full ones!) please contact Sue Morton

Due to unforeseen circumstances, we have had to cancel the talk with Cherish Watton to give us a talk on the Women's Land Army due on 1st July – event will be rescheduled later in 2023 and advertised when date is known.

FOSTAC has been 'volunteered' to help with the Horticultural Show on 12th August at the Village Hall – we are assisting with the Teas.

Our next big event will be on Saturday 9th September – a B B Q in the churchyard. Not only will there be the BBQ but we are inviting people to bring along their goods for a Table Top Sale – so anyone with Crafts, Arts and any other interesting saleable items, please reserve a Table Spot for the day. Also, those taking part should bring their own tables and gazebos as necessary. Check with Sue Morton

There will be the normal BBQ, Wine and Soft Drinks – so come along and enjoy the day with us.

In October we will be welcoming Chelmsford Cathedral Choir again to sing for us, then in November we are planning to invite three local people to give us their own individual talks – we do not know what their subjects will be – so a mystery at present!!
